SECRETARIAT 8 APR 1922

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.J.2149/Pris 15-30-31 dated 28th October 1921 re.- the deputation of a teacher to teach convicts at the Bangalore Central Jail and enquiring whether any arrangement exists at present to teach the convicts in the said Jail, I have the honor to state that the Superintendent of that jail reports that there is practically no - arrangement to teach reading and writing to the illiterate convicts. The Inspector-General of Education in Mysore, who was consulted in the matter, has agreed to depute one of the teachers of the Government School with an allowance of Rs.15/- per mensem from the Prisons Budget as soon as a school of the elementary grade is started from the early part of the ensuing official year. Due provision for the expenditure required for the purpose both recurring and non-recurring will be included in the Budget of this Department for the next official year, if the said proposal is kindly sanctioned by Government.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Sir,

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No.J.5267/Pris 15-20-46 dated 16th May 1922 enquiring - whether it will not be possible to utilize the services of literat convicts of good conduct to supplement the teaching by the teacher proposed to be deputed for the purpose, I have the honor to state that the Superintendent of the Bangalore Central Jail reports in his letter No.765/F. 22 dated 11th June 1922 (copy enclosed for reference) that the selection, from among the prisoners, of - literate convicts to serve as tutors to others, does not seem to be desirable. He further says that to begin with, the number of convicts attending School may not be large, but if the number increases, literate convicts of good conduct and of old age may be tried to supplement the teaching by the teacher, under his personal supervision.

I concur with the views of the Superintendent in the matter.
